

SADDLEBACK CHURCH

ORPHANS AND VULNERABLE CHILDREN

Saddleback is committed to being an advocate for solving the orphan care crisis. At Saddleback, we don't believe in orphanages. We believe in families. Our vision that is churches worldwide would be committed to the same cause.

When you give to this fund you are:

- Helping local churches everywhere learn how to best solve the orphan care crisis in their own community through advocacy and reunification or adoption.
- Rescuing orphans and vulnerable children from the street, orphanages and other adverse circumstances by empowering the local church to care.
- Empowering churches with tools, training and models which emphasize both indigenous and inter-country adoption utilizing principle which help not hurt.
- Building Orphan Care ministries in our international campuses.
